CHARGED WITH PROCURING POISON WITH INTENT TO KILL.

Mary A. Young Can Secure $3,000 or a New Trial-Other News of the Courts.

David A. Goodwin, aged forty years, was indicted by the Marion county grand jury yesterday and is held to answer the charge of procuring poison with intent to kill.

Goodwin was arrested about two months ago at Richmond, Ind., and was brought to this city to answer a charge of attempting to poison the family of Joseph Myers. It is said Goodwin made three efforts to destroy Myers, his wife and little daughter. and, it is claimed, displayed an affection for his wife, Mary Myers. Out of jealousy, she says, he laid plans to kill the entire family. Once arsenic was found in their coffee, once in a bottle of whisky used for medicinal purposes, and both times the family escaped without serious results. The time he was detected was the result of a visit to his daughter, Eva Goodwin, who lives with J. L. Hilton in this city. While here he purchased two boxes of candy and instructed his daughter to send them to the Myers family. It was found to contain

When arraigned before Judge Alford Goodwin pleaded not guilty. Frank Hendricks was appointed to defend him and his case will be tried at the September term. Goodwin was recommitted to jail, where he has been since his arrest.

MURDER OF DOC LUNG.

James Andrews's Trial Will Begin in Criminal Court To-Morrow.

James Andrews, one of the three negroes charged with the murder of Doc Lung, the Chinaman killed in his laundry on Indiana avenue over a year ago, begun in the Criminal Court before Judge Alford to-morrow morning. The jury will be selected from the regular panel of twelve men together with a special venire of twenty names. Andrews will be represented by Attorney Fred Sheets and the defense will endeavor to prove an alibi. Doc Lung, the victim, was killed while asleep in his laundry. He was beheaded with his own meat cleaver. The murderers gained entrance through a back window and their object was burglary. Three negroes, Nim Davidson, James Andrews and Ollie Sanders, were accused of the crime and were arrested. Jesse Baker, another negro, who was shot to death in an Indiana-avenue barrel house row several months ago, was also impli-

Sanders made a confession on the strength of which Davidson was sent to the penitentiary for from two to twentyone years. Sanders's story is that on the night of the murder he met the other three negroes on Indiana avenue and went place near Doc Lung's laundry. He says he was to remain at the entrance of an alley leading to the rear of the laundry, with orders to whistle if the police came and that the other three went in and killed the Chinaman.

$3,000 OR NEW TRIAL.

Judge Carter's Ruling in the Case of Mary A. Young.

By a ruling made by Judge Carter, in the Superior Court yesterday, Mary A. Young must either accept $3,000 or submit her breach of promise suit against Corydon R. Shimer, a wealthy farmer living just east of Irvington, to another fury and take the risk of being refused anything at all. damages in her suit in this court and the defendants filed a motion for a new trial. The court held that the amount recovered was exorbitant and in excess of the real injury to her heart and feelings, and de- | ple's Lookout Mountain conference will cided to grant a new trial unless the plaintiff was willing to accept a reasonable amount by way of compromise.

Albert Lewis Indicted.

The grand jury returned an indictment for burglary against Albert Lewis, colored, coachman for Maurice Donnelly, No. 2004 North New Jersey street. The charge was made by Edward Perry, whose residence he entered a few weeks ago. Mrs. Perry was awakened by a man standing at the side of her bed. He escaped when she screamed. He was seen later near the residence of Elmer Stevenson, No. 2002 North New Jersey street. He was arrested by Detectives Bray

Appeals in Ghoul Cases.

Attorney Frank McCray filed motions for appeal yesterday in the cases of the ghouls. Rufus Cantrell and Sam Martin. The appeal in the Cantrell case is taken on the round that the law under which he was principally on the evidence in the Money was secured from friends of the men convicted to pay the expense of preparing the transcripts.

The Judgment Suspended.

Earl Divelbliss, 811 Daly street, the young man who was arrested several days ago, charged with stealing $17 from his fatherin-law and $7 from a toy bank belonging to his nine-year-old brother-in-law, was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to serve sixty days in the workhouse by Judge Whallon, of the city Police Court, yesterday morning. The judgment was suspended on the payment of the costs of the case. Osgood Case Postponed.

The Osgood case that was to have been taken up to-morrow in Judge Carter's court will likely go over until next fall. The postponement is caused by the cases that have consumed more time than was

LEGISLATIVE BLUE BOOK.

Strictures Passed Upon Legislators by Leaders of Labor.

The legislative blue book, constituting the official report of the committee having charge of the labor bills before the last session of the Indiana General Assembly, is now ready for distribution. The committee is composed of Frank B. Alle, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers: W. S. Friesner and E. E. Jackson, representing pany, at 1320 North Delaware street, was the Locomotive Firemen: S. A. Druley, J. T. Williams, J. E. Fabaud, representing the Railway Trainmen; Edgar A. Perkins, rep-He had been employed on Myers's farm, resenting the Indiana Federation of Labor. The blue book gives the story of the work of the committee during the session and concludes with the following summary of the attitude of the senators and representatives toward labor legislation: "The senators who are deserving of spe> cial mention, and who championed the cause of organized labor on the floor of the Senate, were: Bell, Fortune and Davis, and were ably assisted by the votes and efforts of Senators Purviance, Smith and Darby, and the entire minority, except Senator Fleming, who was instrumental in recommitting our railroad commission bill, Senate Bill 198, for Fortune. The senators who were unfavorable to all labor measures, and who were conspicuous in their efforts to defeat bills introduced by your Wood. The senators who were very pronounced in their efforts to defeat all labor legislation were: Ogborn, Matson, Lindley delay and defeat every measure which was in the interest of labor.

Hull, Jakways, Muir, Wright, Stechhan, Lewis, Slack, Sciffes, Kirkman, Lewis of Clay and Bamberger. In fact, the entire House was favorable to labor, with the exception of Representatives Mor-gan and Kimball."
